Bay Watershed Education and Training Program

Grant Recipients
FY2003

- Organization: Carmel Unified School District
  Award amount: $49,090
  Description: Middle school students will collect data and monitor the Carmel River to assess the health of the river and watershed.

- Organization: Monterey High School
  Award amount: $9,861-
  Description: High school students will conduct water quality sampling and intertidal monitoring, conduct statistical analysis on the data, write research papers on the results, and present their findings at the Monterey Bay National Marine Sanctuary Symposium.

- Organization: Foundation for California State University Monterey Bay-Camp SEA Lab
  Award amount: $47,046
  Description: Underserved students will be offered field-based ocean science experiences that include scientific investigations, kayaking, and introductions to marine and science careers.
  Award amount: $24,494
  Description: Teachers from underserved area schools will be introduced to local scientists and human resources to help them implement ocean science curricula and activities in their classroom.

- Organization Foundation of California State University Monterey Bay-Watershed Institute
  Award amount: $49,176
  Description: A formal outcomes-based California State University certificate program will be offered to teachers aimed at providing meaningful environmental community service experiences for K-12 students.

- Organization: South Coast Wilderness Society
  Award amount: $30,00
  Description: Underrepresented youth will be introduced to working professionals in the field of natural resources management and will participate in active research and restoration projects through local research organizations.

- Organization: San Jose State University Foundation- Moss Landing Marine Laboratories

  Award amount: $40,849

  Description: Teachers from underserved area schools will be educated in marine research and resource management issues, including human impacts to coastal and marine environments